

PLAN C Screening Pricing 2023

PLAN C is an independent film in the truest sense - we bootstrapped production and are still paying off the costs it took to make it. Since Sundance, we have been rolling out our outreach campaign, which also takes funds. Your screening fees support PLAN C's growing presence in the world. Thank you for supporting us in whatever way best fits you and your organization. Below is a breakdown of the pricing options:

Option 1: Public Screening

If you are not able to pay any screening fee, and still want to host a screening fundraiser, sounds great! We are happy to support allies in the movement - and welcome YOUR support in order to do that! The donations raised will kindly be split with the film. How does it work? You receive all funds from your donors at your event. We are grateful for you contributing half of those donations back to us on our donation page.
